

Mount Fuji

Description

Part of the Fuji Hakon-Izu National Park, the mount Fuji is the tallest mountain in Japan, rising 3 776,24 meters high. Listed as a UNESCO World Heritage site and known throughout the world as an emblem of Japan, this still active stratovolcano last erupted in 1707. First popular within Japanese culture, Mount Fuji is often depicted in artistic circles such as cinema, manga or painting.

Metadata

- GPS Coordinates: 35.2138°N, 138.4339°E
- City: Kitayama
- Country: Japan
- Landmarks: Natural Wonders
- Land Surface in Hectares: 20702
- Cadastral Number: J.P.L.NW.K.1